STAT

Office of Executive Director-Comptroller
ATTENTION: Mr []
7E-12 Hqs.

Ben:

STAT This notice includes no change in policy, it merely updates H [] dated 2 July 1970. The only changes in the new notice are: a change in tense in paragraph 1a, and the addition of the guidance provided by paragraph 1b(5) regarding the classification 1-D.

STAT [] provides for new occupational deferments which have been prohibited by Executive Order 11527 since 23 April 1970. It will be rescinded when this notice is published. It could have been rescinded, and probably should have, in July 1970 when []

STAT was published.

As you may know, ExDir presents all military deferment cases to the Director. They are few and far between, and I don't recall any in recent months, but if the attached reflects any change in policy, ExDir should be consulted. Please advise.

Deputy Director for Intelligence
Inspector General
General Counsel

25X1 SUBJECT : Proposed [REDACTED] Military Deferment

FOR YOUR CONCURRENCE OR COMMENTS

Attached is a copy of proposed [REDACTED] initiated by the Director of Personnel to outline Agency policy and procedures for requesting renewal of occupational deferments and for assigning draft-eligible employees overseas. With the publication of [REDACTED] [REDACTED], Military Deferment, will be rescinded. The present [REDACTED] is out of date and, because of the uncertainties surrounding the Selective Service System draft program, the Director of Personnel considers it inappropriate to amend this regulation.
